

NEWSY NOTES OF HENRY

What Others Are Doing That Is Interesting to You.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fuller attended the International live stock show. Miss Jane Steele spent Thanksgiving with her sister Anna in Chicago.

A map of Illinois, the United States and the World free with one year's subscription to the Henry Current News. See page 4 for particulars.

Mrs. Mae Burkhardt spent Sunday in Havana with her mother, Mrs. Crompton.

Crescents, raisin loaves, coffee cakes. Hubert's kind is the kind you will want every day.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Hunter left last evening for a week-end visit in Chicago.

Buy early and avoid the rush. We have plenty of space to store your goods at the Fair Store.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Forbes are attending the International live stock show in Chicago.

For Rent—Furnished club room for four gentlemen. Furnished cottage for housekeeping or rooming. Inquire Parkside Inn.—Adv.

Mrs. Mabel Steimle has been enjoying a visit from her brother, John Remley of Joliet.

The finest of their kind—Woodfill's engraved and hand-painted Christmas cards.—Adv.

Mrs. A. M. Stoner, Clarence and sisters of Hopewell were Henry shoppers Saturday afternoon.

Salt in barrels, sacks or blocks at Hunter's Feed Store.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hunt are in attendance at the International live stock show in Chicago.

The ladies of St. John's Guild will hold a bazaar and bake sale Dec. 4.—Adv.

Louis V. Guslin and Milo A. Summy of Chicago are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Giblin.

Your old stove taken in as part payment on a "Majestic" range. See Meier Bros.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baer were Thanksgiving dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lott-Sullivan.

Do your shopping early. Plenty of toys and holiday goods at the Fair Store.—Adv.

Floyd Williams of Peoria spent over Thanksgiving with his father and sister, John H. Williams and Miss Laura.

Any hauling? See Pete Wunder or phone 247 Red.—Adv.

Mrs. Louis Kraus and daughter Lois ate Thanksgiving dinner with her brother, J. J. Snyder and family at Chillicothe.

Delicious and appetizing pies, peach, apple, mince, raisin, apricot. All good, all fresh and pure. Hubert's Bakery.—Adv.

Roy Bracken and son were Sunday dinner guests at the home of his aunts, Mrs. Mae Sticket and Miss Margaret Campbell.

We have one of the finest stocks of toys, dolls, dishes, at the Fair Store.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fuller attended a family reunion at New Windsor Thanksgiving day at the home of his uncle, Elmer Hoogner.

Good during December only is the magazine offer with the current news in the Current News.

Miss Grace Blazey of Tiskilwa visited her friend, Miss Dorothy Cromwell Thursday. In the evening both attended the dance at Toluca.

Tea rolls, pocketbook rolls, and buns. Dainty and refreshing. They add a great deal to any meal. Hubert's Bakery.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Wright and son Wilfred motored to Lacon Friday and visited with his aunt, Mrs. Annie Feazel who is quite feeble.

A "Hoover" electric vacuum cleaner will make her a fine Xmas present. See them at Meier Bros.—Adv.

Little Robert Davis had his tonsils and adenoids removed at the hospital Monday morning. The little fellow is getting along nicely.

Your favorite magazines with all the local news while it is news. The plan is printed on page 4.

Miss Bernice Keegan of Putnam was operated upon for appendicitis at the hospital at 9:30 Saturday morning and is getting along fine.

For your really fine Christmas cards—hand-painted and engraved—go to C. A. Woodfill's.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. William Seltz of Toledo, Ohio, visited from Wednesday until Sunday evening at the home of his mother, Mrs. William Seltz.

Electric trains, that run on a track at $9.50. See them at Meier Bros.—Adv.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Carpenter had as house guests the first of the week, his brother, Rev. C. C. Carpenter of Peoria and Rev. DeVol of Washburn.

The bridge that has been out so long over Senachwine creek has been replaced by a new one which is good news to the traveling public.

Lost on Thanksgiving evening somewhere between A. W. Kern's residence and the hospital, a seven-jewel Elgin gold, open-face watch and chain, gold knife with initials "H. W. K." and Elk charm, order No. 591, attached. Suitable reward for return to this office.—Adv.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Barker, Nov. 26, a fine baby boy. This is the first son and the second little one that has come to bless this home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winters and two children of Bradford motored down in their car Sunday morning and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ball.

Lazy hens start laying when fed Blatchford's Egg Mash. It starts 'em cackling. Hunter's Feed Store sells it.—Adv.

Regular meeting and election of officers of M. W. A. held at K. of P. hall on Friday evening, Dec. 10. Good attendance desired.—C. L. Clawson, V. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Perdew entertained at dinner Sunday, William Chestnut and family, and Dave Chestnut and family of Magnolia; also Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morrison of Loomis, Nebraska. It has been sixteen years since the families were all together.

Toys and Christmas goods. See the large assortment at Meier Bros.—Adv.

Wesley Deal went to Norris Friday morning to visit his mother's foster father, Joseph Thompson, who is lying critically ill at his home, stopping on his return to visit his aunt, Mrs. Ernest Firth in Peoria Saturday, returning home Sunday morning.

No better bread than Hubert's bake. Everyone ought to try it and then they'll like it.—Adv.

The Henry Fire company held its regular monthly meeting Friday evening. A large number of the fire ladders were present. After the regular business had been disposed of, the firemen adjourned to the Star restaurant and enjoyed an oyster stew and a smoker.

Genuine "Pyrex" glass cooking ware. See the large assortment at Meier Bros.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Clark recently received a beautiful remembrance from their son Harry of New York City.

It is a round Japanese lacquered box containing sixteen bars of soap, seven different varieties and highly perfumed.

Hand-painted and engraved Christmas cards at C. A. Woodfill's Jewelry Store.—Adv.

John Kraus ate Thanksgiving dinner with his daughter, Mrs. John Kramer at Joliet, returning Saturday, bringing his wife, who has been staying with their daughter since her operation, home with him. They left her very much improved in health.

See the big stock of toys at the Fair Store.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morrison of Loomis, Neb., visited from Wednesday until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Perdew. From there they went to Magnolia to visit with Mrs. Morrison's brothers, William and Dave Chestnut and families. Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Perdew are sisters.

Almost any magazine you like with the Henry Current News. A saving in cost on your favorite periodicals and all of the local news. Page 4 carries the plan.

Miss Victoria Halbleb and mother entertained at dinner Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Wright and son Wilfred, Mesdames Marshall Downey and George Halbleb, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Smith and daughters, Frances and Marie, Phillip Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wright and Mr. Jackson. It was another one of those Jackson She and daughter will leave the farm and are coming to Henry to live as soon as arrangements can be completed.

For Sale—One man's fur coat, size about 42 or 44. Cheap if taken at once. Also gent's good riding saddle. Inquire this office.—Adv.

Mrs. W. J. Carpenter, accompanied by Mr. Carpenter's oldest sister, Mrs. Wilson, went to Chillicothe yesterday. There they were joined by her daughter, Mrs. Hopkins of Lomax. From there they went to Streator. Mrs. Wilson stopping off at Ancona to visit her oldest brother for a few days, then going on to Waukegan, Mesdames Carpenter and Hopkins going on to Streator to visit Mrs. Carpenter's father, W. W. Bean, Mrs. Carpenter returning home Saturday.

Just a chance to save 20 cents and get the best in bread, too. Tickets $1.20 for $1.00. Hubert's Bakery.—Adv.

While Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Daniels were coming home Thursday evening, a large car ran into them as they were attempting to cross the crossing this side of Charles Vogel-sang's home. The mishap was purely accidental. The young lady driving the big car became bewildered when she saw that trouble was imminent and in trying to avoid the Daniels' car swung around in such a manner as to cause the collision. Her car being heavier, was undamaged.

Phone 247 on Red or Barry's garage for some heavy hauling by truck. Pete Wunder for service.—Adv.

One of the neighboring papers made the statement recently that Rev. M. B. Van Leer was going to resign from the ministry and spend his time booking contracts for the Mutual Chautauqua Co. of Chicago until next summer, when he was to go on their platform as a lecturer. We are pleased to state that the paper was misinformed and Rev. Van Leer has no such intention, for we have direct information to that effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harsch and mother, Mrs. Mary Harsch of Peoria came up Thanksgiving morning and spent the day with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hofer and family, returning home in the evening.

Still Lower Prices for December Quality Sale

New Clothes for Xmas

Will make you feel so much better and the most glad some period of the year, that you really ought not let the additional advantage you have now and here, of getting fine clothing at a minimum of cost slip.

You'll find it exceptionally remarkable and you will have here a very big assortment to choose from and for them at lowest prices we have Overcoats, Suits, Hats, Caps, Underwear, Sweaters, Gloves, Mittens, Shirts, Ties, Mufflers, Collars, Hosiery, Slippers and the many other things, all part of a man's wardrobe.

The Men and Boys

Women and the Girls

can pick out a new waist in either silk or georgette, Sweaters, Kid Gloves, Hosiery, Slippers, Skirts, Shoes, Neckwear, Hats, Underwear, Suits, Coats, Furs and Scarfs and feel that their choice has meant but a portion of what the cost used to be, and that quality will render service.

Look Over Our Line of Christmas Gifts

and you will see why we will be unable to supply our demand. Frankly it is the quality in every article, and the back to pre-war prices that prevail. A few suggestions may help you to decide. Here they are: Ivory, Cut Glass, Silks and Dress Goods, Silk Petticoats, Furs, Dresses, Gingham, Ladies' Fancy White, Aprons, Purses and Canteen Bags, Handkerchiefs, Furs, Infants' Layettes, Boudoir Caps, Camisoles, Silk Combinations and Neckwear. Extremely low prices on Rugs and Furniture. Look over our stock.

If You'll But Come In You'll Then Appreciate Our Low Prices

J. WATERCOTT & CO. The Big Store

Old Man 'Dollar' Is Back Again

... at ...

Stoneberg's Shoe Store

Our Whole Stock at 1915 Prices!

Anticipate Your Wants Now
Attend, Look and Buy!

A Few Specials

Childrens' Kid Shoes, white kid top for	$1.75
Turn soles, button style, black and pat, $2.50 values
Ladies' Brown Shoes at	6.30
Kid leather, 14-8 military heel, welt sole, $9.00 value
Men's Brown Calfskins at	5.95
Welt soles, English last, very snappy style, $8.00 and $8.50 value
Ladies' Black Kid at	6.00
Military heel, welt sole, $8.00 value

Broken lots offered for a song. Don't Miss This

Stoneberg's Shoe Store

Henry, Illinois

MAGNOLIA

Mrs. Pauline Dean of Peoria, who has been sewing for Mrs. C. D. Freeman returned to her home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Dora Simmons has returned to her home at Mt. Vernon after a week's visit with her sister and brothers, the Andersons of Lone Tree and friends in Magnolia.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Law were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stratton of Sandy.

Mrs. Wm. Titus has returned from a visit at Granville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dittman, Mrs. Grover Kidd and sons were Peoria visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Hattie Hittbrand was a business caller in Peoria Monday.

Harry Ramage was home for Thanksgiving. He is now located at St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Boyle spent Sunday with relatives in Hennepin.

Miss Elsie Bentlin is home from Denver and spent Thanksgiving day with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harve Ramage spent several days here last week visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downey were guests of Dr. Joe Downey and wife of Toluca Thanksgiving day.

Miss Margaret Dunne was home several days last week, returning to Chicago Monday.

Mrs. Ralph Deffenbaugh enjoyed a visit with her sister, Winifred of Madison, Ill., several days last week.

Henry Eddingfield of Streator was a Magnolia visitor the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ramage and Harry spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harve Ramage of Hennepin.

Mrs. Wm. Potter has been on the sick list for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dagner were Sunday guests of his mother and sister who live near Priscilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun and children of Allentown are visiting at Charles Hannum's at present.

Sam Potter of Peoria spent several days this week with his mother, Mrs. Lede Potter.

The "Coleman" gasoline reading lamp, more than 600 in use in the country homes of this vicinity. Sold on one week free trial. See Meier Bros.—Adv.

Mrs. Adam Delniger still stays about the same. Mrs. Kate Delniger is caring for her.

A milk substitute for young stock—that's Blatchford's Pig Mash and Blatchford's Calf Meal. Both good and for sale at Hunter's Feed Store.—Adv.

Prevents worms in hogs. Get it in brick or block form. Ask for Careyized Stock Tonic—a health builder for all farm livestock—at Hunter's Feed Store.—Adv.

SUPERVISORS' MEETING.

Lacon, Ill., Nov. 22, 1920:

Dear Sir: You are hereby notified that the Board of Supervisors of Marshall County, Illinois, will meet at the Court House in Lacon on Monday, the 6th day of December, 1920.

Respectfully,
LAWRENCE D. GREGORY,
County Clerk.

at 1:30.

Each person's bill must positively be itemized separately, certified to by the Supervisor of the town, sworn to separately, and filed in the County Clerk's office by 12 o'clock noon the Saturday preceding the meeting. Unless bills are filed for classification by above time they will be carried over to the next meeting.

Respectfully,
LAWRENCE D. GREGORY,
County Clerk.

TODAY'S MARKETS.

No. 3 corn	58
Oats	41
Wheat No. 2	1.50
Rye	1.30
Butter	55 @ 60
Eggs	65